1. According to source, the Egyptian Minister in Warsaw, Poland, informed the Egyptian Ministry of the Interior through the Ministry of Foreign Affairs that, at the Peace Conference in Warsaw, certain representatives were nominated for each country. The following representatives were named for Egypt:

Kamal al-Bindari Pasha, former Egyptian Minister to Moscow.
Fathi Radwan, lawyer.**
Sa'ad al-Din Kamal, nephew of Radwan.**

2. The Egyptian Minister in Warsaw also informed the Ministries of Foreign Affairs and Interior that, while in Warsaw, Sa'ad al-Din Kamal gave an interview to the Polish press in which he reportedly stated, "I have now seen with my own eyes and learned that what the Western Democracies have told us about conditions behind the Iron Curtain is a lie. I now know that it is here that real freedom and democracy exist."

25X1A *                      Comment. Reported in 1946 to be anti-British.
